From the Principals...

Dear Parents and Guardians:

We are a very blessed community; witness the parish support for renovation of the church and new school buildings. As you know, this is an aggressive undertaking that will need prayer, participation and perseverance, all for the benefit of our children and many generations of children to come.

The next few years will be an incredible adventure for our parish and school, exciting and potentially fraught with rumor and discouraging conversations. If you didn't hear "it" from this newsletter or the PTG president chances are you may not have correct information. Please know that our doors (and email) are always open to your questions and comments.

Together for Catholic Education,

Ms. Denise Coates

Mrs. Mary Beth Clark

PHILOSOPHY

ST. PATRICK PARISH SCHOOL is a Catholic, co-educational, elementary and junior high school which serves a growing suburban community. We at St. Patrick realize the importance of a positive self-concept, a love and respect for other persons, and an ability to make and be accountable for one's own decisions. By building a Christ centered community where students learn to integrate Catholic truths and values with everyday living, students will not only hear the word of the Gospels, but live the experience and, thus, more profoundly integrate their Catholic, Christian values.

We believe that parents are the primary educators of their children. Working with parents, teachers facilitate learning by creating an environment that provides diverse opportunities for the spiritual, intellectual, moral, physical, and cultural growth of each child.

MISSION STATEMENT

ST. PATRICK PARISH SCHOOL provides spiritual and moral guidance in a Catholic environment incorporating an academic program that challenges each child to reach his/her potential and prepares students to serve God and community as fully productive members of society.

Congratulations to the Hughes Family (Connor 3B, Cavanaugh 1A) on the birth of their fourth child! Keegan Michael was born on Friday, February 12 and weighed in at 8lbs. May God bless you all!
